

Inspirational Leadership Talks 2024-25

Our inspirational leadership talks are designed to stimulate thinking and discussion. Our speakers are from a variety of schools and organisations. We draw on their expertise, experience and insights into a particular area in these short 45-minute talks. We suggest that school leadership teams attend and then meet afterwards to discuss any thoughts and ideas they found interesting or would like to explore more for their own setting.

Each session is run online, via zoom, and is open to all leaders and their leadership teams. We also extend the invitation to include our participants of the Targeted Leadership Programme (TLP) for emerging and existing middle leaders.
